Sporting News

The boys and girls 3/4 football teams were both in action this week.

Mr Brown said 'the boys played very well, creating many opportunities to score goals and passed the ball well as a team, they represented the school very well together.

The girls won both their games against Cockington. Mr Brown said 'the girls played great football, moving the ball quickly and working as a team'. Player of the match went to our team captain, Marla, in the first game and to Amara in the second game.
