Year 4 trip to Tiverton Museum

Year 4 had an incredible time at Tiverton Museum of Mid-Devon Life! We saw Anglo-Saxon Farming tools, investigated an Anglo Saxon burial and even had a go at weaving in an Anglo Saxon way.

Year 4 trip to Tiverton Museum

We enjoyed some dress up, some rune reading and writing and had lots of fun! The children were very well behaved and were even complimented on how polite they were!

"I really liked the trip to the museum and I really liked the farming trail where we saw a scythe, a bathtub for pigs and an egg carrier." - Adam

"My favourite part of the museum was getting to try on some clothes and looking at the food Anglo Saxons would have eaten." - Delilah

"I really liked when we got to do some dressing up as Anglo Saxons!" - Connor
